About this document

This is a factual record of MVE + Partners, Inc. — its history, ownership, leadership, offices, portfolio, collaborators, practice and published standing — assembled entirely from sources that are open to anyone: MVE's own website and blog, MVE's own project pages preserved in the Internet Archive, MVE's press releases, AIA Orange County award entries, the annual lists published by the Orange County Business Journal and the Los Angeles Business Journal, dated trade press, municipal records, and MVE's own job postings.

It contains no assessment and no comparison. Where two published sources give different figures, both are shown and neither is chosen — the difference is reported as it stands.

Evidence tiers, used where they earn their place and omitted where a fact is plainly established:

TIER	MEANING
VERIFIED	A primary source — MVE's own live page or release, a named consultant's or contractor's own project page, an award-programme entry, a municipal record, or a named publication reporting directly.
ARCHIVED MVE PAGE	MVE's own words about its own work, recovered from the Internet Archive. Treated as near-primary and flagged because a later page may supersede it.
REPORTED	Trade press, a distributed release, an aggregator, or third-party detection.
INFERRED	Labelled arithmetic or reasoning drawn only from the evidence stated beside it.

Live pages were fetched 2026-08-21 and 2026-08-25; archived pages carry snapshot dates from 2008 to 2024.

— 2. Fifty years

2.1 February 1974 — the founding

Carl McLarand opened Carl McLarand & Associates in the Brookhollow Office Park in Santa Ana in February 1974, aged 26, with one employee: a drafter. He had completed USC's five-year architecture programme in four years, served a six-month tour with the Coast Guard, and spent eight years at AC Martin and Associates in Los Angeles, where he designed the 27-storey 1900 Avenue of the Stars and developed conceptual designs for Atlantic Richfield Plaza. (VERIFIED — Sonia Chung, "The 50-Year History of MVE + Partners," Orange County Business Journal, 2024-03-11.)

The founding principle, in the firm's own phrase, was to be "exceptional by design" — carried unchanged into the mission statement it publishes today (VERIFIED — MVE 50th-anniversary release, 2024-02-28; MVE release via GlobeNewswire, 2024-03-18).

The founder's account of the first three years, verbatim:

"Sales in my first year were $5,000, then jumped to $75,000 in the second year and then doubled in the third year. We grew to 140 people." — Carl McLarand (VERIFIED — OCBJ, 2024-03-11)

The sentence about growing to 140 people follows the three-year revenue sequence in the published text and is not dated to a specific year there. It is reproduced as published.

The 1970s work includes a 118-unit townhome development in Orange that won a Gold Nugget award and sold out within thirty days (VERIFIED — OCBJ, 2024-03-11).

2.2 1979 — the partners, and the name

In 1979 the firm moved to a Class-A high-rise beside South Coast Plaza and the then-new Orange County cultural centre, and two partners joined:

"In 1979, we moved into a Class-A high-rise office building located adjacent to both the South Coast Plaza and the Orange County cultural center that was in its infancy." — Carl McLarand (VERIFIED — OCBJ OC500 profile, 2024-11-17)

"At this location, I brought in two new partners: Ernie Vasquez and Rick Emsiek and the name eventually morphed to MVE + Partners." — Carl McLarand (VERIFIED — OCBJ, 2024-03-11)

The initials are literal — M for McLarand, V for Vasquez, E for Emsiek (REPORTED — OCBJ, 2019-03-13). Ernesto "Ernie" Vasquez was described by OCBJ in March 2019 as the architect who "first became well-known as the 'V' in Irvine's MVE + Partners Inc." (VERIFIED); his work has centred on urban and affordable housing, transit-oriented and mixed-use development, institutional facilities and community planning (REPORTED — Cal Poly alumni materials and OCBJ profiles). Richard "Rick" Emsiek, AIA, NCARB, is the named third partner.

The founder's stated reason for taking partners is worth recording in his own words, because it explains the client-side orientation the practice has kept:

"clients were risking tens of millions of dollars in each of their developments. I believed that they would feel more comfortable working with an architect who understood business issues." — Carl McLarand (VERIFIED — OCBJ, 2024-03-11)

— 3. Ownership and leadership

3.1 The 2019–2024 ownership transfer, in MVE's own published words

MVE's account of its succession is a broad internal transfer, not a single transaction. It is quoted here in full because paraphrase changes it:

"In 2019, MVE + Partners successfully transitioned its management to a new generation of leaders who were drawn from the existing organization. Matthew McLarand assumed the role of president and chief executive. In addition, over 15 existing members were selected as future leaders of the firm and were offered the right to purchase designated allocations of the company stock. Over the ensuing five years, the ownership of the firm has been completely transferred to these new shareholders in a manner that rewards and incentivizes them for their efforts and success."

(VERIFIED — Orange County Business Journal, "The 50-Year History of MVE + Partners", 2024-03-11)

Three things follow from that passage, and only those three:

- 1. The transition ran 2019 → 2024 — a five-year staged transfer completing at or about the firm's fiftieth anniversary.
- 2. Ownership went to a group of more than fifteen internal shareholders. The firm is internally and broadly held.
- 3. The leadership step-up came in stages — President and Director of Design in December 2017, with Carl McLarand continuing as chief executive and chairman (VERIFIED — OCBJ, 2017-12-06), and the fiftieth-anniversary history placing the assumption of "president and chief executive" in 2019 (VERIFIED — OCBJ, 2024-03-11).

One published detail is left standing rather than smoothed. In August 2021, OCBJ described Carl McLarand as one "who still continues as chairman and chief executive," while quoting "MVE President Matt McLarand" in the same article (VERIFIED — OCBJ, 2021-08-30). That sits beside the 2019 date in the fiftieth-anniversary account. Both are published; no date is chosen here for the chief-executive title. What is not in question is the shape of the transition: President in 2017, a five-year ownership transfer running 2019–2024, and Carl McLarand as Chairman Emeritus today.

Carl McLarand's own bio describes "more than 45 years of nearly continuous growth" and his insistence on what he calls "evocative architecture" — "design that engages clients, users, and society" (VERIFIED — his MVE bio). Matthew McLarand's title on the site is President + Director of Design.

The visible expression of the transfer inside the roster is the 2022 promotion cohort of ten (§3.3).

3.2 Leadership — the complete published roster

The following is the complete roster on mve-architects.com/about/leadership , read 2026-08-21. Titles and post-nominals are reproduced exactly as the site states them. There are thirty-five people.

3.3 What the roster records

Tenure is long and internal promotion is the pattern. Publicly stated joining years across the thirty-five include 1984, 1998, 2003, 2004, 2010, 2013 (twice), 2014, 2016, 2020, 2021 and 2026. Luis Arambula's bio records four distinct promotions across twenty-eight years; Mark S. Kim's and Sherwin Pineda's both trace Senior Associate Partner (2016) → Principal (2018).

A cohort of ten was elevated in 2022 — Pieter Berger to Principal; Paul Kearney and Tim Beuchat to Senior Associate Partner; and Anuradha Chaukkar, Jinfan Chen, Joe McClyde III, Hakop Musayelyan, Erick Rivas, Steven Rosier and Hannah Wan to Associate Partner. That cohort sits inside the 2019–2024 ownership transition described above.

Design leadership is plural by design. Three people carry a Director of Design title simultaneously — Matthew McLarand firm-wide, Pieter Berger for Irvine, Sherwin Pineda for Los Angeles.

Education clusters at USC and the California publics. USC appears in eight bios — Carl McLarand, Matthew McLarand, Craig Smith, Mark S. Kim, Sherwin Pineda, Hakop Musayelyan, Charles Pigg, and David Arnold at masters level. Cal Poly Pomona appears in four (Ceron, Rivas, Ta, Wan), Cal Poly San Luis Obispo in three (Nilmeier, Torres, Beuchat), UC Berkeley in three (Rongé, Berger, Gura).

Credentials across the published leadership (VERIFIED — the individual bios): FAIA — Kap Malik. AIA — Carl McLarand, Matthew McLarand, Pieter Berger, Sherwin Pineda, Chase Rongé, Mark S. Kim, Raymond Albanesi, Luis Estrada, Jinfan Chen, Hong Bae. NCARB — most of the above plus Luis Arambula, Craig Smith, Luisa Ceron, Steven Rosier, and Adam Rodriguez (R.A.). LEED AP / LEED AP BD+C — Mark S. Kim, Paul Kearney, Joe McClyde III, Tim Beuchat, Luisa Ceron, Jinfan Chen, Hong Bae. CDT — Luisa Ceron, Charbel Moumaji. LCDM — Luisa Ceron. Eleven of the thirty-five bios carry LEED credentials or US Green Building Council membership.

Two senior non-design seats were filled in 2026 — marketing and strategy in March, legal in July — alongside the standing finance-and-operations seat.

3.4 Professional and civic involvement, as the bios state it

The result is thoughtful, rigorously developed design work aligned with performance, vision, and long-term value."

MVE Values

"At MVE, we believe that our approach to design and strong project management are the backbone of a successful development. We meticulously plan out each project detail, we are proactive and anticipate early and often with our team and consultants, and utilize the appropriate tools and technology to execute all aspects of the assignment."

And the mission statement from the press boilerplate (VERIFIED — MVE release via GlobeNewswire, 2024-03-18):

"MVE + Partners' mission is to design with passion, collaborate successfully, and sustainably enrich the communities it influences to continually deliver buildings that are exceptional by design."

Sources for the opening dates. Los Angeles — Luis Arambula’s MVE bio, "MVE's new Downtown LA office which opened in the summer of 2016" (VERIFIED). San Francisco — MVE release, 2023-08-08, carried by Zweig List and Civil + Structural Engineer (REPORTED). Guadalajara — MVE release via GlobeNewswire, 2024-03-18 (VERIFIED). San Diego — below.

MVE also publishes a Director of Business Development, Utah, described on his own bio as an independent consultant leading business development across Salt Lake City and beyond.

4.1 San Diego — two dates, both accurate

Two MVE-sourced statements sit side by side, and each is accurate to what it describes:

"The affordable housing development is one of the first projects spearheaded by MVE's new office, which opened in October 2024." (VERIFIED — The Becker project release, 2025-08-18, distributed via Construction Owners Association of America and Civil + Structural Engineer)

"Award-winning architecture firm MVE + Partners has opened a new office in downtown San Diego... MVE + Partners ('MVE') was recently featured in the San Diego Business Journal for the opening of its first full-service office in downtown San Diego, led by principal Chase Rongé." (VERIFIED — MVE blog posts, 2025-07-22 and 2025-07-30)

INFERRED, and labelled: the San Diego studio was established in October 2024, and the first full-service downtown premises at 655 W. Broadway followed, announced in July 2025.

4.2 The San Diego studio, and its growth trajectory in Chase Rongé's words

The San Diego Business Journal article of 2025-07-22, reprinted in OCBJ on 2025-08-25 under the byline Jackie Moe, is the fullest published account. All of the following is VERIFIED against that text:

- The office occupies the 11th floor of a 23-storey tower at 655 Broadway, about 1,600 square feet, with room to expand into adjacent offices.
- Initial staff: 10.
- A largely open floor plan with a board room and two private offices used mainly as collaborative spaces.

The growth expectation, in the reporter's words:

"Rongé said he expects the San Diego staff to grow to 15 to 20 people within the next 18 months, ultimately expanding to 25 to 30 people." — San Diego Business Journal, 2025-07-22 / Orange County Business Journal, 2025-08-25

And in his own:

"Looking at what we feel is a very good market down here with a lot of promise, we decided it was time to have a brick-and-mortar office down here."

"MVE has been doing work down here for about 40 years. Our main office is in Irvine, so it's close enough that we can have some really great connectivity."

"We have about 30 projects that we've done in San Diego, architectural projects. We have some additional master planning projects that go back quite a way."

"It's an amazing spot. We thought about where we'd like to be located in San Diego County and thought it was really important to be downtown. It allows us to be engaged in the city and have connectivity to all parts of the city."

"The open office allows for high levels of collaboration, a lot of social interaction." — all Chase Rongé, SDBJ 2025-07-22 / OCBJ 2025-08-25

The article names Mercado del Barrio in Barrio Logan, The Village at Torrey Pines student housing for UC San Diego, and the Pacific Highlands recreation centre in Del Mar among MVE's earlier San Diego work.

4.3 Geographies named in MVE's own material

MVE's fiftieth-anniversary release describes reach across California, Utah, Arizona, Colorado, Mexico, the UAE and China (VERIFIED — 2024-02-28). Carl McLarand's bio names China and the United Arab Emirates among the places he has worked (VERIFIED — his MVE bio). The China programme is the largest international chapter: more than 18 million square feet across Dalian, Wuhan, Beijing and Chengdu, beginning around 2009 with a one-million-square-foot office campus in Dalian (VERIFIED — OCBJ, 2024-03-11).

5. The portfolio

5.0 How roles are stated here

Master planner, design architect, architect of record, executive architect and interior designer are distinct roles, and they are kept distinct throughout. Where MVE's own project page states a role, that statement is used and nothing is added to it. Where MVE's own page credits a collaborating firm with part of the design, that credit is reproduced as MVE states it.

Riverwalk, San Diego is the clearest case. MVE's own project page lists its services there as "Master Planning, Entitlements". The one Riverwalk building attributed to MVE in this document is The Becker, which MVE's own page and blog claim directly.

The entities behind the credit lines. MVE has designed through several affiliated entities, and its own project pages say so on the page itself, which is why a credit may read something other than "MVE + Partners":

5.6 Master planning

The discipline the firm leads with, and where the largest numbers sit. Kenneth Nilmeier is Principal and Director of Planning.

Riverwalk, San Diego

MVE is master-plan and entitlements architect. Client: Hines. MVE's current page states the programme as 200 acres, 4,300 residential units, 150,000 sf retail, 1,000,000 sf office, an 80-acre park, a new Green Line trolley stop at its core, twenty development parcels across three walkable neighbourhoods, roughly half the site preserved as open space, restored river habitat, and adaptive reuse of the historic bridges and clubhouse. Services: Master Planning, Entitlements. VERIFIED — mve-architects.com/portfolio/riverwalk, fetched 2026-08-25.

Two sets of MVE figures exist, at different dates. MVE's earlier page gave 195 acres, 4,300 units, 100,000 sf retail, 1M sf office; the current page gives 200 acres and 150,000 sf retail. The current figures are the ones used throughout this document.

The $4 billion figure is MVE's own: the blog describes "the transformative $4 billion Riverwalk development in Mission Valley" (VERIFIED — MVE blog, 2025-07-22). The site is entitled and phased construction is underway, with The Becker the first housing out of the ground in 2025.

MTA Headquarters is the signature civic building — 650,000 sf, 28 storeys, Los Angeles, for Catellus Development Company. MVE's own page describes it as drawing on "the 1930s Hispanic-Deco imagery of the adjacent Union Station and Post Office" — buff Minnesota limestone with Italian granite accents, grand two-storey arches, and a third-level concourse connecting the complex to Union Station's east portal. MVE's own claim about the project is the memorable one: "Completed on time and on budget without a single change order," which the page calls "a rare achievement among major Los Angeles office buildings." MVE filed it under Transit-Oriented Developments. ARCHIVED MVE PAGE.

— 6. Clients

6.1 The Irvine Company — 45 years

The length of the relationship is stated by the founder in the first person, under his own byline in the Orange County Business Journal:

"we completed the design of numerous significant apartment developments for notable developers including The Irvine Co., which we have been proud to call a client for 45 years."

— Carl McLarand, "The 50-Year History of MVE + Partners", OCBJ, 2024-03-11 (VERIFIED)

He singles out The Village and The Park at Irvine Spectrum, "which together total over 3,000 residential units." MVE's own project pages put The Village at 1,550 and The Park at 1,450 — exactly 3,000.

Westview	Irvine	The Irvine Company	podium multifamily	VERIFIED (client field)

Roughly 10,700 residential units across nine Irvine Company residential projects, plus an office building. INFERRED — arithmetic on MVE's own published unit counts.

One nuance the record carries. MVE's archived client page from a 2008 snapshot includes a testimonial from SARES-REGIS Group: "Since 1992 SARES-REGIS Group and MVE have collaborated on several of our finest multifamily projects, including several we built for Irvine Apartment Communities." (ARCHIVED MVE PAGE, snapshot 2008-01-13.) Some Irvine-branded work therefore reached MVE through a developer partner as well as directly.

On the start date. "45 years" as of March 2024 implies roughly 1979, but no source states a year, and none is asserted here.

6.2 Fifteen client relationships substantiated against a named project

Each row is evidenced by MVE's own portfolio page where one publishes the client, and otherwise by a consultant's or contractor's own project page, an award entry, or dated trade coverage.

6.3 The relationships that recur

Four names appear across more than one project or more than one market, and one is deeper still.

Holland Partner Group — the most repeated relationship in the record after The Irvine Company: Hallasan (375 units, 38 storeys, MVE as architect of record), The Grace (300 units), The Griffin (287 units), Orlo & Alba (725 units), Volta on Pine (271 units), 550 Harborfront (375 units), 625 South Beacon (281 units), and The Daphne / 3rd & Fairfax through NASH-Holland (311 units) — eight projects, roughly 2,900 units, spanning downtown Los Angeles, the South Bay, Long Beach and Santa Clara across a decade.

Hines — the Riverwalk master plan and entitlements in Mission Valley, the largest single planning commission in the portfolio, and the frame within which The Becker sits.

Toll Brothers — Rafferty in Santa Ana, delivered with Toll Brothers Apartment Living and EJF Capital, and the project carrying the fullest published consultant roster in §7.

7.6 Interiors

On several projects a separate interiors firm is credited alongside:

7.9 A district-scale team record: OCVIBE, Anaheim

OCVIBE is a 95- to 100-acre entertainment district around the Honda Center in which MVE is credited as residential architect and as master planner of the residential component. Fletcher Studio's published credit list for the district names, alongside MVE Architects: Smith Clementi, House & Robertson Architects, WATG, Populous, Burton Studio (Phase 1 landscape), Fuscoe Engineering, Hunsaker & Associates and Stantec (civil), Christine Saunders & Associates (planning and entitlements), Camino Enterprises, Nuquest Ventures and Futureforms. Phase 1 is under construction and scheduled to host 2028 Olympic volleyball. REPORTED — fletcher.studio/ocvibe, fetched 2026-08-25. This is the published composition of a multi-firm district team, not evidence of a direct engagement between MVE and each firm on it.

8. Practice and delivery

8.1 What MVE's own hiring documents specify

The clearest primary evidence of the delivery stack is MVE's own job specification. The Architectural Job Captain (All Levels) posting for the Los Angeles studio requires:

Proficiency in Revit, AutoCAD, SketchUp and Microsoft Office — and states that a "Revit test will be given prior to hire."

It also asks for knowledge of building systems and codes including CBC and ADA, recent experience in high-density, multi-family or high-rise work, and lists the role as full-time and studio-resident. Salary range shown: 72,000–108,000. VERIFIED — MVE posting via the talents.vaia.com mirror, fetched 2026-08-25.

The Designer posting for the Irvine studio requires Revit, SketchUp, Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator and Microsoft Office, and describes producing designs, working drawings, schedules and details in Revit and SketchUp. REPORTED — search-index rendering of the MVE posting.

8.2 Detected tooling

The following were detected against the verified organisation record MVE + Partners, Inc. / mve-architects.com by third-party firmographic tooling on 2026-08-21. All are REPORTED. Detection of this kind observes web-facing signals only; it does not see desktop or on-premises software, so it is not a complete inventory.

CATEGORY	DETECTED
BIM and CAD	Revit, Navisworks, Autodesk BIM 360, SketchUp, Rhino
Documents and graphics	Adobe InDesign
Productivity and tenant	Microsoft 365 — Exchange Online, Outlook, Office

Revit and SketchUp appear in both the detected list and MVE's own postings, which is the strongest corroboration available for any item here. A practice-management platform was also detected, but no public source names the product, and none is stated.

MVE's own About page speaks of "proactive team coordination with consultants" and of deploying appropriate technology through project delivery, without naming tools (VERIFIED). Paul Kearney's bio records that he was instrumental in the firm's early-stage BIM implementation, and Charbel Moumaji's describes construction documents and BIM coordination (VERIFIED — the individual bios).

8.3 Open and recently open roles

ROLE	STUDIO	NOTES	TIER

Project Manager	Irvine	Oversees architectural delivery from design through construction	REPORTED
Internships	Firm-wide	Routed separately from full-time roles	VERIFIED — mve-architects.com/about/careers

Applications route through an external ADP recruitment portal rather than an in-page listing (VERIFIED — careers page, fetched 2026-08-25).

MVE's stated hiring position, from the careers page (VERIFIED):

"At MVE, we recognize that our staff is our most valued resource in ensuring client satisfaction and business success. We offer a creative work environment and rewarding career options to designers and planners of all experience levels from intern to management. Career development is achieved at MVE through challenging assignments and professional development plans. In addition to providing the tools for career success, we offer training and professional development reimbursement."

INFERRED, and labelled. Four features of the postings point the same way: a pre-hire Revit test on a production role sets a measured floor on documentation skill rather than a self-declared one; a requirement for recent high-density, multi-family or high-rise experience matches the typology the portfolio is built on; licensure expected or in progress on a job-captain role and 15+ years on Senior Designer indicate depth being added at the delivery end; and the roles are studio-resident across a five-office practice.

8.4 Direction of growth, from the public record

- San Diego — office opened October 2024 at 655 West Broadway, Suite 1170, led by Chase Rongé, AIA, NCARB, Principal + Director of San Diego; the downtown opening was covered by the San Diego Business Journal in July 2025. Firm-sourced coverage records roughly 30 San Diego architectural projects and several master plans across a 40-year regional history, with a stated growth path from 10 staff to 15–20 within 18 months and 25–30 thereafter ($4.2).
- Utah — Charles Pigg, Director of Business Development, Utah, appears on the published leadership page, following completed Salt Lake City work at Post District and Sugar Alley. VERIFIED.
- Mexico — MVE Architects Mexico in Guadalajara, opened March 2024 and led by Liliana Bernardis Valenzuela, Senior Associate Partner + Director of Mexico Studio. VERIFIED.
- Senior non-design seats added in 2026 — Catherine Tang, Director of Marketing & Strategy, in March, and Janet Dennerline, General Counsel, in July. VERIFIED (leadership page) · REPORTED (OCBJ "On the Move," 2026-08-17).
- Automotive — a named sector since the December 2024 Johnson Lexus release, led by Kap Malik, FAIA, with projects in North Carolina, Florida and Texas. VERIFIED.

8.5 The public and civic record

MVE's work reaches municipal hearings routinely, and entitlements is a named service on the largest project in the portfolio.

JURISDICTION	MATTER	OUTCOME AND DATE	TIER
Newport Beach	Snug Harbor Surf Park , case PA2024-0069 — roughly 15 acres on part of the Newport Beach Golf Course; a 5–7 acre surf lagoon, three warming pools and a spa, a three-storey clubhouse with surf academy, fitness, yoga, retail, restaurant and café, and a two-storey, 20-unit athlete accommodation building. On the public process, principals Pieter Berger and Chase Rongé discussed balancing development practice with community education during entitlement phases in an August 2026 interview, where Berger stated:

"Planning is really the framework for success. Decisions made at the planning level can create massive swings in cost by the end of a project if you're not careful." — Pieter Berger (REPORTED — Surf Park Central, 2026-08-18)

"Surf parks are generally a central part of the development, not the sole element of it. Understanding how all the components work together with the overall development is essential to the surf park's success." — Chase Rongé (REPORTED — same source)

Bylined authorship. "Blending Adaptive Reuse and New Construction in Salt Lake City" (Mann Report, 2025-10-10) is authored by Pieter Berger, AIA, Principal (VERIFIED). His stated position there:

"In general, adaptive reuse projects can reduce costs by up to 15%."

"The Post District is proof that adaptive reuse is a robust solution to meet increasing housing and retail needs, while offering ample cost savings." — Pieter Berger (REPORTED — Mann Report, 2025-10-10)

Matthew McLarand, interviewed by Bisnow Los Angeles in May 2020 (REPORTED):

"First is the welfare of our firm's people. They are our greatest strength and asset. As our work continues to progress, their health is paramount, because nothing gets done without them."

"The work we do is very collaborative. There is nothing like being in a room with someone and connecting with them."

And from the fiftieth-anniversary release (VERIFIED — 2024-02-28):

"At MVE, we believe that our past experiences shape our future success. By combining the lessons learned from our past with the tools and innovation of the present, we are able to achieve greatness." — Matthew McLarand, President and Director of Design

Firm milestones are distributed through GlobeNewswire, which carries them on to Yahoo Finance, Morningstar, StreetInsider and other syndicated outlets.

Channels (REPORTED, at fetch 2026-08-25): LinkedIn `company/mvepartnersinc` , ~5,817 followers; Instagram `@mve_architects` , ~2,804 followers and 935 posts, with a bio reading "Celebrating 52 years of design in architecture, planning & community solutions"; Facebook `mve.architects` ; and X `@MVE_Architects` .

8.7 Sustainability, as publicly evidenced

MVE's mission language commits to "sustainably enrich the communities it influences" (VERIFIED — MVE boilerplate, 2024-03-18). In the project record, Palo Verde II at UC Irvine was the first UC Irvine project submitted for LEED and achieved Gold; The Becker is targeting LEED Gold; and Wuhan First City Building 1 carries LEED and China Green Star. Eleven of the thirty-five published leadership bios carry LEED credentials or US Green Building Council membership.

9. Market position

No firm-wide revenue figure is published, and none is stated here. MVE is privately held and files no public accounts. The figures below are what two trade publications survey and print — local billings, each on its own geography and its own reporting period. They are not firm-wide revenue and cannot be added together.

9.1 Orange County Business Journal — fifteen years of the list

OCBJ's annual list of Orange County's largest architecture firms is ranked by local billings for the 12 months ended 30 June. Every entry below was read from the OCBJ article text. All VERIFIED.

LIST YEAR	RANK	OC BILLINGS	ADDITIONAL DETAIL AS PUBLISHED	SOURCE DATE
2011	No. 4	$30.8M, up $6.7M / +27.8% — the largest billings increase of any firm on that year's list	Printed as " McLarand Vasquez Emsiek & Partners Inc. of Irvine "	2011-09-24
2014	No. 2	$39.8M, a 10.3% decline	" The firm reduced its headcount by four to 100. About a quarter of its employees — 26 — are now licensed architects, an 18.2% increase over last year. " Printed as " MVE Group "	2014-09-28
2017	described as " the fourth-largest architecture firm in Orange County "	not stated	Context: Matthew McLarand's promotion to President	2017-12-06
2018 (as cited in 2019)	No. 6	$25.5M	Cited comparatively	2019-03-13

LIST YEAR	RANK	OC BILLINGS	ADDITIONAL DETAIL AS PUBLISHED	SOURCE DATE
2021	No. 7	$20.8M , a 5.5% decline	"MVE... has boosted its number of licensed architects to 19 from 14 a year ago."	2021-08-30
2022	No. 7	"nearly $21 million "	61 employees in Orange County	2022-09-19
2025	No. 7	$28.1M for the year ended 2025-06-30	Billings up 25% year over year — one of the three largest percentage gains on that year's list	2025-08-25
2026	No. 8	not printed in the article text	The 27 listed firms billed $624M in Orange County, up 11% from $561M; they employed 2,708 people locally, up 3%, including 499 licensed architects, up 11%	2026-08-24

Two things to keep in view when reading that series. It measures Orange County billings only, so work delivered from Los Angeles (2016 onward), San Francisco (2023), Guadalajara (2024) and San Diego (2024–25) does not appear in it. And the firm's scope changed inside the series: the public-sector unit was spun off as SVA Architects around 2014. INFERRED, and labelled: the series is not a like-for-like measure of firm-wide growth across the full period.

MVE's stated read of the market, given to OCBJ in August 2026, is that larger residential mixed-use projects drove higher billings and that the firm sees increased interest in adaptive reuse, tenant improvements and office-to-residential conversions —

"as property owners seek to maximize the value of existing assets" — an MVE official (VERIFIED — OCBJ, 2026-08-24)

9.2 Los Angeles Business Journal — THE LIST: Architectural Firms, 2026

Read directly from the published list PDF (VERIFIED — LABJ, 2026-01-19, page 23), ranked by L.A. County billings:

FIELD, AS PRINTED	VALUE
Rank	14
Company	MVE + Partners Inc., 888 S. Figueroa St., Suite 2170, Los Angeles 90017
L.A. County billings, 2025	$24.5 million
L.A. County billings, 2024	$22.5 million
L.A. architects	16
L.A. employees	80
Offices, L.A. / total	1 / 5
Headquarters	Irvine
Top local executive	Matthew McLarand, President, Director of Design

This is the only published source giving a billings figure and an employee count on the same line, and its "1 / 5" office field corroborates the five-office list on MVE's own /connect page.

9.3 The published headcount figures, each on its own basis

DATE	FIGURE	BASIS	SOURCE
2014-09-28	100 employees , 26 of them licensed architects (up 18.2% year over year)	as reported in the OC survey	OCBJ (VERIFIED)
2021-08-30	19 licensed architects , up from 14 a year earlier	OC survey	OCBJ (VERIFIED)
2022-09-19	61 employees in Orange County	local count	OCBJ (VERIFIED)
2024-02-28	"approximately 100 architects, designers, planners, programmers and technical specialists"	firm-wide, MVE's own words	MVE 50th-anniversary release (VERIFIED)
2025-07-22	10 staff at the San Diego opening	office count	SDBJ via OCBJ (VERIFIED)
2026-01-19	80 employees in Los Angeles County , 16 of them L.A. architects	local count	LABJ THE LIST (VERIFIED)

The trade-press "local employees" field is self-reported and its boundary is not defined in either publication, so these figures are measured on different bases and are presented individually rather than combined. No current firm-wide headcount is published by MVE after February 2024, and none is stated here.

9.4 AIA Orange County

- Mark S. Kim serves as Director at Large for the AIA Orange County chapter (VERIFIED — his MVE bio, read 2026-08-21).
- MVE holds an entry in the AIA Orange County firm directory and enters the chapter's design awards regularly, with entries on the record in the 2024 and 2025 programmes and earlier rounds.
- Bayview Center, credited to MVE + Partners, appears on AIA Orange County's published 25 Year Awards list (REPORTED — aiaoc.org/25-year-awards). The award year is not given on that list and is therefore not stated here.

10.1 The firm-level totals, as MVE states them

MVE's fiftieth-anniversary release of 2024-02-28 gave a fifty-year cumulative tally; the live About page, read 2026-08-21, gives a current one. Both are the firm's own published figures.

— 11. Sources and method

This document was assembled from public sources only. Nothing in it came from a private database of relationships, from any individual inside or connected to the firm, or from any non-public record. Every statement above is traceable to one of the sources listed here.

11.1 What was consulted

MVE's own live site, fetched 2026-08-21 and 2026-08-25 — `mve-architects.com/about`, `/about/leadership` and the thirty-five individual bios at `/about/leadership/{name}`, `/about/careers`, `/about/blog`, `/connect`, `/portfolio`, and the 74 live project pages at `/portfolio/{slug}`. Each project page carries a structured Client / Program / Services / Typology / Site Area block, which is MVE stating its own role in its own words and is the strongest single class of evidence in this document.

MVE's own portfolio map data — `/data/projects.geojson`, 68 records, which includes several projects carried in the map with no published detail page.

MVE's own earlier project pages, recovered from the Internet Archive — snapshots from 2008 to 2024. The pre-2026 site published 151 project pages at `/projects/{slug}`; 140 were recovered, together with the sector indexes `/projects_category/studenthousing/` and `/projects_category/transit-oriented-developments/`, the `/affiliates/` page describing MVE International, MVE Studio, MVE Pacific and MVE Institutional, and the `/company/clients/` page from a 2008 snapshot. These pages are cited throughout as ARCHIVED MVE PAGE. They are MVE's own words about MVE's own work, and they are what makes a fifty-year record possible — the student and faculty housing at UC, CSU and private campuses; the civic, cultural and education work; the China and Dubai chapters; and the predecessor credit lines under McLarand Vasquez & Partners and MVP International all live there. No single current source holds fifty years; this is how the fifty years were restored.

MVE's own blog — twelve dated posts, December 2024 to August 2026 — and MVE's own press releases, distributed through GlobeNewswire, Zweig List and Construction Owners.

AIA Orange County award-programme entries, fetched 2026-08-25 — Rafferty (2024 round, entry 9436), The Ritz-Carlton Residences (2025 round, entry 9970) and Post House Apartments (archive round, entry 8566). These three carry the fullest published consultant rosters found anywhere and are the primary basis for §7.

Consultants' and contractors' own project pages, fetched 2026-08-25 — `eptdesign.com`, `wenkla.com`, `petersenstudio.com`, `glotmansimpson.com`, `swinerton.com`, `level10gc.com`, `rsmdesign.com`, `fletcher.studio`, `burton-studio.com`, `vcastructural.com`, and the `englekirk.com` → `wsp.com` redirect.

Published annual lists — the Orange County Business Journal's architecture-firm list across 2011, 2014, 2018, 2021, 2022, 2025 and 2026, read from the article text; the Los Angeles Business Journal's THE LIST: Architectural Firms, 2026-01-19, read from the published PDF, page 23; and the OCBJ OC500 directory.

Dated trade press — San Diego Business Journal, Orange County Business Journal, Urbanize LA / LA YIMBY, SF YIMBY, Connect CRE, Bisnow, Mann Report, Utah Construction + Design, Utah Business, Multifamily Executive, Builder, MultifamilyBiz, REBusinessOnline, AZBEX, KTAR, California Construction News, Civil + Structural Engineer, Surf Park Central, Surfer, WavePool Mag, Newport Beach Indy and The Log. Every citation carries its publication date.

Municipal and environmental records — City of Newport Beach case PA2024-0069; City of Culver City project records; the City of Anaheim document centre; CEQAnet filings for OCVICE Residential Phase I and Snug Harbor Surf Park; riverwalksd.com construction updates.

MVE's own job postings — the Architectural Job Captain (All Levels) specification for the Los Angeles studio, and the Irvine Designer, Designer III, Senior Designer and Project Manager listings, together with the careers page.

Third-party firmographic detection, 2026-08-21, against the verified organisation record `MVE + Partners, Inc.` / `mve-architects.com`. This is the basis of §8.2 and is kept at REPORTED throughout. Detection of this kind observes web-facing signals only.

11.2 The rules this document was written under

1. Roles are reproduced, never inferred. Master planner, design architect, architect of record, executive architect and interior designer are distinct, and where MVE's own page assigns part of a design to another firm, that assignment is reproduced exactly.
2. Where two sources disagree, both are shown and neither is chosen. This applies to the chief-executive date (§3.1), the two San Diego dates (§4.1), the Riverwalk acreage (§5.6), the several projects carrying two entries or two figures (§5.14), and the local billings and headcount series (§9).
3. No firm-wide revenue or headcount figure is stated, because none is filed or currently published. What is published locally is presented as exactly what it is.
4. Arithmetic is labelled. The ~10,700 Irvine Company units and the ~9,000 student beds are sums of MVE's own published figures, marked INFERRED, and are not figures MVE publishes.
5. Anything that could not be established is left out rather than softened. Where a claim could not be supported by a named source with a date, it does not appear.
6. Two disambiguations were applied throughout. MVE, Inc. of Modesto — a civil engineering and land surveying firm sharing the initials — is unrelated and nothing from it appears here. The Canyon at 1023 3rd Street, San Francisco, is by MVRDV and has been excluded.
7. Access limits are stated plainly. Several sources returned HTTP 403 or 404 to direct fetch; findings resting on those are search-index renderings, tagged REPORTED, and were not upgraded.

Compiled 25 August 2026. Live pages read 2026-08-21 and 2026-08-25; archived pages from Internet Archive snapshots dated 2008 to 2024. Every claim above is tagged at the point it is made, and every source is named with its date.
